BOSTONIAN WINS TITLE

Takes North and South Amateur Championship by 5 Up and 4 to Play.

English to The New AND NEW YORK HERE'S PINERURST, N. C. April 6 -Francis Outmet added the North and South am Ouimet added the North and South am-actur to his long string of champions ship titles here this afternoon, defeat-ing S. J. Graham of Greenwich by a up and 4 to play at the thirty-second hole of the thirty-six hole final contest played on the No. 2 course.

The Roston expert went around in $6, 36-72 in the morning round and was 5 up if its condition. In the afternoon his opponent held him down to this initial five hole advantage, much to the surprise of the products, in the match ended when the fourteent hote of the second round was halvewith A birdle 4 for each player.

The bye holes were played. Outnet the bing the afternoon round in 35, 18 —15, while Graham, who let down on the informal last holes, finished in 36, 60-76. This gave Outmet a total of a total of 154, both figures including some strokes lost through stymics.

In the wind this morning Outmet's round, including an extra stroke taken to avoid a stymle, was better than looks. Graham's 7s included also stroke lost by a stymic plus one or twistrokes lost in attempts to get on ever

The Morning Round.

Outmet won six holes in the mornill Pound and allowed Graham only on the fifth, where Graham sank a 25 foot putt for a birdle. The second and seventh were interesting hotes. Graham hooked his drive for the second to the foot of a ranway holst and had to hang himself in the post for his second shot Eventually he halved the hole and came within an inch or two of winning I

Driving for the seventh Graham landed In a trap 250 yards from the green but played out to within 50 yards of the pin. He was well on in 4 but missed the long putt. Onimet was :

Coming in Onimet took the eleventh and seventeenth in par figures and won the fourteenth with a blidle 4 in spite of a stymic against him. The Boston player had 2 for the hole and played safe. The three holes won coming in left Quimet 5 up at the end of the morning round. The eards: PIRST BOUND

The Afternoon Round.

In the afternoon, with the final rest a foregone conclusion, most of Pinehus adjourned to the horse show and muss some fine golf. Ouimet hit the cup f an eagle 3 at the start but stayed of and halved the hole with Graham stroke under par. At the third is Guimet won for the second time in day with a birdle 3, and at the fifth duplicated Graham's birdle 4 of t morning round and won the hole. Ouir then was 7 up.

Cuirnet a bole and left him 6 up at the turn. Here he had 25 to Graham's 25. At the tenth Outmet got out of a trap and won the hole with a 4, which put him lader Hone We St. 1 % For Joseph St. 7 up. This was the last hole that Culmet wen in the match. Graham took the eleventh after slicing his drive into the woods, and won the tweifth with a fin 4, when Ouimet spelled his chances by trapping his drive.
